DIGEST

Adley (SB 151)

Proposed law defines "Internet, virtual, street-level map" as any map or image, that contains the picture or pictures of homes, buildings, or people that are taken and dispensed, electronically, over the internet or by a computer network, where the picture can be accessed by entering the address of the home, building, or person.

Proposed law provides that when an Internet, virtual, street-level map is used in the commission of a criminal offense against a person or against property, an additional period of not less than one year shall be imposed without the benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of the sentence. The additional penalty imposed shall be served consecutively to the sentence imposed for the statute defining the crime against a person or property.

Present law provides that "act of terrorism" means the commission of any of the following acts when the offender has the intent to intimidate or coerce the civilian population, influence the policy of a unit of government by intimidation or coercion, or affect the conduct of a unit of government by intimidation or coercion:

- (a) Intentional killing of a human being.
- (b) Intentional infliction of serious bodily injury upon a human being.
- (c) Kidnapping of a human being.
- (d) Aggravated arson upon any structure, watercraft, or movable.
- (e) Intentional aggravated criminal damage to property.

Proposed law retains present law but creates the crime of using an Internet, virtual, street-level map where the map is used in the commission or attempted commission of an act of terrorism.

Proposed law provides that an additional sentence of not less than 10 years shall be imposed without the benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of the sentence when an Internet, virtual, street-level map where the map is used in the commission or attempted commission of an act of terrorism.

Proposed law provides that the additional 10 year penalty shall be served consecutively to the sentence imposed for the terrorist act or attempted terrorist act.

Effective August 15, 2010.
